Complete times posted in usual places and available at www.TIMINGMD.NET

	The Kolts have two meets this week: TODAY here at Kahler against Lowell &amp; then Wednesday they travel to Merrillville Intermediate School to run against Pierce.
	Next week is the final week to win a free book! Guess who the Kahler reader is. Go to K Hall and across from Mrs. LBJ's room is a yellow bulletin board where you can guess. This reader works in the front office and has a yorkipoo named Penny. This person also loves the following books: Charlotte's Web, Goodnight Moon, and Harold and the Purple Crayon. Make a guess on who this reader could be by the end of the month, and you could win a book of your choice.
	Are you an eighth grader who loves a good murder myster--perfect for fall? Then, stop by LBJ's room for a copy of Truly Devious, the eighth grade lunch club book of the month. The lunchtime book club has been moved to lunch on October 27 to accommodate DC travelers, so join the fun and grab a book even if you didn't participate in September. The club is open to anyone, and you can come any month. It is not an all or nothing club. Have questions? See Mrs. Bloom-Johnson in room 143. (If you want to know more about the book, read below.) Eltingham Academy is a famous private school in Vermont for the brightest thinkers, inventors, and artists. It was founded by Albert Eltingham, an early twentieth century tycoon, who wanted to make a wonderful place full of riddles, twisting pathways, and gardens. Shortly after the school opened, his wife and daughter were kidnapped. The only real clue was a mocking riddle listing methods of murder, signed with the frightening pseudonym "Truly, Devious." Years later, Stevie Bell is set to begin her first year at Eltingham Academy, and she has an ambitious plan to solve this cold case. But the past has crawled out of its grave: Truly Devious makes a surprise return, and death revisits Eltingham Academy.

Book Club - ANY 7th Grader

How to join: At the beginning of the month, get a copy of the book from Ms. Rose at the library. Then, on the last Tuesday of every month, meet in the library after getting your lunch (you can jump to the front of the lunch line) to discuss the book. You must return the book at the meeting (or sooner if you finish it earlier) and it must be in good shape. We are borrowing the books from the public library and need to return them in the shape we got them.

NOTE: While you are welcome to come every month, if you don't want to, you can just come the months the books interest you.

Tuesday, September 28: Scythe by Neal Shusterman Sci-Fi

A world with no hunger, no disease, no war, no misery: humanity has conquered all those things, and has even conquered death. Now Scythes are the only ones who can end life—and they are commanded to do so, in order to keep the size of the population under control.

Citra and Rowan are chosen to apprentice to a scythe—a role that neither wants. These teeki hi ns must master the “art” of taking life, knowing that the consequence of failure could mean losing their own
