Do you have a special talent? Do you think you have what it takes to get the "golden buzzer?" If so, audition for the first annual Kahler's Got Talent! Just like the TV show, students will perform before a live audience and panel of judges. Only one act can be crowned the winner. Complete your audition using the link on your advisory's Canvas page. We are looking for all types of acts - singers, dancers, rappers, bands, comedians, etc. We are looking for solo artists and groups alike. The top 15 acts will be chosen to compete in the live show. Auditions are due by Friday, January 13th, 2023. Good Luck!

PBIS

For January, Effort is the focus for Student of the Month. At the end of the month, teachers will nominate those students who have shown the most Effort EVERY day. One student per grade level will earn $10 Kahler Cash and a $10 Amazon gift card. All nominees will have their names read in the announcements.

Eighth Grade Book Club will be reading Truly Devious by Maureen Johnson. on January 27, 2023. It is a Murder Mystery. The premise is below. If you have never done a book club and want to try something new for the new year, get a book from Miss Rose in the library and join us in the library conference room on January 27 during eighth grade lunch.

Ellingham Academy is a famous private school in Vermont for the brightest thinkers, inventors, and artists. It was founded by Albert Ellingham, an early twentieth century tycoon, who wanted to make a wonderful place full of riddles, twisting pathways, and gardens. Shortly after the school opened, his wife and daughter were kidnapped. The only real clue was a mocking riddle listing methods of murder, signed with the frightening pseudonym "Truly, Devious." Years later, Stevie Bell is set to begin her first year at Ellingham Academy, and she has an ambitious plan to solve this cold case. But the past has crawled out of its grave: Truly Devious makes a surprise return, and death revisits Ellingham Academy
