

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 2017

CLASS REMINDER: Both of Mr. Holden's first semester Psychology classes should stop by his room to pick up their personality masks.

LIFEGUARDS: Any student currently certified in lifeguarding and in need of a summer job may see Mr. Tonkovich concerning the availability at Wahala Beach.

SENIORS: Cap and gowns will be delivered during lunch periods on May 2 for boys and May 3 for girls. Please inform Mrs. Brumm with any questions or problems.

COLOR RUN: Lake Central Color Run 2017 is happening on May 13. Interested students and staff can sign up online at lakecentralcolorrun.webstarts.com or can see Mr. Kania in C317 for more details. Groups of 10 or more get a special discount so get your teams or groups together and have some fun. All proceeds go towards Riley's Children's Hospital, Munster Cancer Care Centre and Lake Central Student Scholarships. Sign up today before prices go up!

GUIDANCE: The following institutions of high learning will have representatives available at Lake Central: today – Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising from Los Angeles during lunch periods.

PARKING: Students must display their parking permit in their vehicle and park in the assigned lot. Violators will receive a Wednesday School.

Students who attend any athletic events are reminded that no outside food, drink or backpacks will be permitted through the gates. We expect all fans to support the teams and show positive sportsmanship. Do not target opposing players or fans and any offensive chants will not be tolerated. Your support for the athletic programs has been amazing this year!

Just a reminder to students that the Daily Announcements can also be found on the high school web site.
